

Colorlo.

CITY PR

RESOLVED TO

MAKE NEW YORKS,

STREETS CLEANER

(I KNOW WHAT TO EXPECT

THOMAS S BRENNAN

North Bergen.

F (DON'T)

THAN EVER BEFORE

GOOD RESOLUTIONS FOR 1892.

TEXT OF THE EMPEROR'S SERMONS IN

GERMAN AND ENGLISH

THE VENGEANCE OF THE SEA. ANOTHER CHARMING NOVELETTE IN THE WORLD'S NOW FAMOUS SERIES SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

PRICE ONE CENT.

2 O'CLOCK.

"MAC" HAS GRIT.

But Honest John Kelly's Is Closed for a "Blow Over."

His Patrons Entertained Last Night at Neighbor McCormick's.

Who Isn't Afraid and Shows It by Keeping Open Till Dawn.

the Wall" Temporarily Corked.

The Pickwick Has a Picute Through the Overflow at McCormick's,

New York City, Dec. 31, 1891. To the Editor of The Evening World: You have started in to "do up" the Cormick's, next door to Kelly's, where excitement and the orgies are begun. Respectfully yours,

The above letter is one of the many received a dive in more than one sense of the word.

The EVENING WORLD urging it to put There are altegether seventeen tables in by THE EVENING WORLD Urging it to put down New York's outlaws. Carrying it for reference, a reporter last ogive the public some idea of them.

The triplicate establishment run by Mr. stand up.

Windows are never opened, so that the windows are never opened, so that the to give the public some idea of them.

"John will lay low for a few days tid this and stop to listen.

got the advice straight." Who gave Mr. Kelly the

M'CORMICK'S DEN CROWDED.

was vacant for five minutes at a time. have been closed at 1 o'clock yesterday marn-ing was something so unusual that the hab-siting-goon, in which about two hundred itues of the place thought it was a New men and weman caroused. Year's joke put up by "Honest" John. They wouldn't leave the place unti "Honest" John Kelly had a that there was no joke about it.

But imagine the suprise of the frequenters | did not share it. of the dive when they called last night and and successfully dely the law, McCormick found the assignation room closed altogether.
The room was in darkness. Neither the accustomed thrumming of the much-abused admire "grit." guitars downstairs nor the rattle and click of with a hard-looking face. "You're the stuff. the chips in the tiger's lair upstairs were bon't let them frighten you."

Don't let them frighten you."

Mr. McCormick smiled in the consciousness

A white-aproped between took up his station at the side door about 10 o'clock, the fashionable hour at which Mr. Kelly's guests make their appearance shortly after 10.

Many carriages drove up to the side entrances, too, and half drunken men and women got out, and dismissing the drivers, started for the assignation room.

*Kelly was called for a show down. He was outheld and lost the pot," is the terse and sporty way a gambler put it at another table.

Mr. McCornick, who has not been called started for the assignation room.

" HONEST" JOHN PLAYIN' POSSUM.

to-night," was the curt and stereotyped would do in that case. greeting of the bouncer to one and all who. Now, that Gould's and Kelly's places are and evidently come to make a night of it in both out of joint, Mr. McCormick is doing all the dive as a fitting wind-up to a New Year's the business, and doing quite well, he would probably like to "hold on."

"Why?" " What's the matter?"

"What's happened?"
"Has the place been pulled?"

" Has somebody been done up?" All these questions, which represented the sion of business, were fired in a velley at the situatian. bouncer, but he vouchsated no explanation. They were savage in their attacks on the Once in a while he changed his tactics if Evenisa Wome, and Mr. Kelly said he would one more importunate than the rest insisted like "to have that reporter alone just for two on information. With the air of the barroom infantes." bully, he would order the questioner away | Ne didn't say what he would do with him, his say burst and cay:

But the expression on his face as he said it can't get in here. That's als. left very fittle doubt. There was blood in his with a wave of his olg band and rays

The structions for the painted women and A dive that for notoriety takes rank with the professional crooks at Kelly's dive are Kelly's and McCormick's is that of Carey victins than in any other place, and the Thirteenth streets. The same scenes that rounders expressed regret, despite the rude are enacted nightly in the uptown dens are repulse of the bouncer, that the house should represented here, and some of the worst charbe closed.

The closing of Kelly's dive meant a great deal to them. It compelled them for a time to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which to follow their to seek new haunts in which the seek new Welch is aware that the character of his

But the people are easily consoled, and in dive is well known, and he does not want the

And to McCormick's they went, and the example last night and closed up. Both principal topic there as well as throughout the bar and assignation room were shut up the Tenderloin Precinct was the closing of Ught.

cate trap of sin and iniquity was something place about sixty feet long. The assignation playes.

tition. "Kelly is done for. Those articles in The
The bar is reached directly from the street, EVENING World did it," said a sailow-faced,
but the assignation room has a private enhollow-eyed optum field who sat at a table in - trance through a door under the - sto McCormick's taiking to a blear-eved brunette | Which bears the sign " Family Entrance.

that sporting gentry apply that term to a COMMITTEE CHAIRMANSHIPS, man who has lest his "standing" in the particular "fine" or "profession" he may tol-low, and one of the "profesh" scratched off this bit of obituary doggerel;

Softly tread. Kelly is dead.

McCormick's dive is located in a three-story brick building in the same block with the Union Dime Savings Bank. To all outward is to be chosen President pro tem. of the Sen-Carey Welch's Notorious "Hole in appearances it is a respectable family deall, ate when it organizes next Tuesday, will also be the Chairman of the Committee on Cities, cate that it is a den into which the guileless. It is said. and unwary are nightly inveigled and Senator Cantor will have the naming of the relieved of their money.

The place is entered from the street by a pected to give some other good chairmanglass door, which is shaded by a blue curtain. Ships to his colleagues from this city. glass door, which is shaded by a blue curtain. A curtain of similar hue hides the bar from the passers-by on the street. There is no sign on the wholever of the committee on General Laws, and sealow, and if McCormick depended on transient trade he would starve. But the latitated know would starve. But the hilling know would know on a place it is, and initiated know what kind of a place it is, and they are of the sort who skirmish for pigeons Influenza Spreading in Belgium,

During the day only only a few of the " regoutlaws of New York. You have sent mars drop in to chat with Mac, as McCor-McGlory to prison and smashed Tom mick is called for short, or the barkeeper or gould. Now go for the Pickwick Gar-bouncers, if he is not there. They sit around den, Thirty-fourth street and Broadway, with their heels resting on tables till dust. run by an old-timer named Springer, when the night prowlers begin their search who comes from Chicago. Go for Me- for prey, and the place begins to bustle with newspaper men were recently pounded. The "ladies' entrance" is through the Go for Carey Welch's "Hole in the hallway, which is a narrow, dimly lighted Wall," Fourth avenue, and Jim Sulli- passage, not wide enough for two to walk van's, 78 Third avenue. All these places abreast through it, and which leads into the assignation rooms in the rear. There are several steps are descended, which makes it accommodations for many more. hight went to the places enumerated, merely | Last night men and women were so

The triplicate establishment run by Mr.

"Honest" John Kelly, on the northeast corner of Thirty-first street and Sixth avenue had only one section open. That was the barroom. The assignation department and the gambling hell were temporarily closed. The reason for this partial suspension of business was explained in a typical way by a friend of the proprietor, who said:

"John Mill lay low for a few days tid this content the street example of the proprietor, who said:

"John Mill lay low for a few days tid this content the street example of the proprietor, who said:

to find out the meaning of such unseemly sion to pass there, now take the other side of

That "Honest" John Kelly's dive should smoke filled the stuffy little rooms, neither wholesome fear of the consequences of his John and his bouncer forcibly convinced lawless traffic, James McCormick evidently lake all persons who for the time openly deep and in large chunks, pervaded the atleaned over to her male companion and said. in a stage whisper intended to reach " Mac's upon for a "show down" yet, but who did not know how soon he might be, refrained No ladies served here from expressing his opinion as to what he

M'CORNICK'S DIVE OPEN APTER 3 A. M. He had no idea of closing up at 3 o'clock this morning, when the place was in full blast. Three policemen stood on Kelly's corner and watched the rush to McCormick's, in Kelly's barroom the usual crowd of great, probably because they find there more welch, Fourth avenue, between Twelfth and AT THE ELLIS ISLAND DEPOT. EUGENE BLACKFORD REMOVED whether than in any other place, and the Thirteenth streets. The same scenes that in Bad Weather.

Well Under Way.

So he followed "Honest ' John Kelly's

Things Expected of the State

Senate's President Pro Tem.

Senator Jacob A. Cantor, of this city, who Sweden and Holland.

infected. The epidemic is virulent in Gothen

Things have hardly been got in apple-pie Bouncer Wogan in Tom Gould's underground denot vice by Joseph Selling.

Murders are committed every day, but that "Blonest" John Kelly should close his tripi
"Blonest" John Kelly should close his tripi
"Blonest" John Kelly should close his tripi
"Blonest" John Kelly should close his tripi-

Just before noon, the side-wheeler John E. mission. Moore hauled up into the little basin on the cargo of bedraggied, woe-begone tooking men the movement which resulted in its organi committees as President pro tem, and is exhoff, the ferry-boats to the Island, in making the slin. It is scarcely large enough to permit of an entrance when there are several passenger barges lined up against the wharf. Steamboat men also complain of the breakswater, which they say is entirely inadequate to stem the heavy seas in such stormy weather as that of to-day. The waves this murning broke complicity over the breakswater, it should be built to stand higher out of the water, the steamer pilots say.

Was Mayor When Chicago Blazed. Inv associated process.

London, Jun. 2. - Influenza is rapidly Unicago, Jan. 2.—Roswell B. Mason, who spreading in Belgium and Helland. In some was Mayor of Chicago at the time of the great | 1891. districts of North Brabant every house is nre, died of congestion of the brain at mid-night at his residence. He was taken ill four weeks ago.

Business of Receiving Immigrants Gov. Hill, on His Last Day, Supplants the Fish Commissioner.

the same breath that they expressed their search light of The Eventsa Woman thrown borrow for "Honest" John they exclaimed: upon it. Named in His Place.

Fuiton Market was really astonished this Kelly's dive. It was an event so unusual The lights were burning, however, and the order as yet at the new immigrant station on the increasing that it created more talk than the killing of curtains were rolled up so that all could see Ellis Island. This morning, at the beginning Hill, just previous to the expiration or his

> There were not more than sixty immi- to commissioner Blackford and his intimate grants of yesterday's arrivals detailed on friends, however, they having been some-Ellis Island this morning, mostly Italians what prepared for it since a year ago last who came on the steamship Victoria from Pall, when politicians, they allege, began a systematic effort to get control of the Com-

The Fish Commission was established in outherly side of the Island and unloaded a 1870, and Mr. Blackford was prominent in women and children who had arrived on the ration. He was the second commissioner ap-German steamship Traave late jesterday pointed, his commission dating from May pointed, his commission dating from May 23, 1879, while Richard F. Sherman, of toerman steamship Traave late yesterday afternoon.

There were about 400 of them.
Later in the day the steamship (alifornia added its quota of new-comers, and the immense area of the new structure became like a beethive.

To little Annie Moore, a pink-checked, merry-faced Irish lassle from Cork, belongs the distinction of being the first immigrant to land in the new station. She was among the immigrants who arrived yesterday on the Guion liner Nevada, and Commissioner Weber, teen. O'leirne and other officials tendered her, quite a little reception. It pleased Annie immensely, and she had lots of good things to say about New York and the immigration officers when she reached her parents home at 32 Monroe street.

In stormy weather, such as prevailed this forenoon, a good deal of difficulty was experienced by the Moore and J. H. Brinckerhoff, the ferry-beats to the Island, in making her, it is scarcely large enough to person of an entrance when there are several and fish. The Chief Protector receives

The Commission as at present constituted Bowman, of Rochester, appointed April 30, some good racing.

Protectors the politicians have been after my father's place. He always insisted that politics should be kept out of the Commission. When he was taken sick with typhoid tever a year ago the politicians redoubled their efforts to get him out.

"Father wouldn't resign, because he knew they were making a fight against him. That is the formal is at the last moment, when it would be too late for public criticism to have any effect, was not therefore unexpected.

"I don't think my father will make any appeal to Gov. Flower, the has filled the office a long time, it takes thm and noney to perform the duties of a Fish Commissioner, and I think he has had about enough of it."

My my Boody, et Register light McLaughill, Tax Collector Alden S. Swam, William M. William, and not till then."

When he turns up I shall tell all," he said, where the fourts up I shall tell all," he said, and not till then."

I'm keet. Pare $500, a handwap, five further will be taken to the fourts up illeting the politic sample that the strength of the court at White Plains by Deputy-Sherif Verblands, of Westcleaster County. His counsel will there make a motion for his release on ball.

The turns up Herrick will be taken to the court at White Plains by Deputy-Sherif Verblands, of Westcleaster County. His counsel will then.

The turns up Herrick will be taken to the court at White Plains by Deputy-Sherif Verblands, of Westcleaster County. His counsel will then.

The turns up Herrick will be taken to the court at White Plains by Deputy-Sherif Verblands, of Westcleaster County. His counsel will then.

The turns up I shall tell all," he said, and not till then.

The turns up Herrick will be taken to the court at White Plains by Deputy-Sherif Verblands, of Westcleaster County. His counsel, the further will have any only fit there make a motion for his release on ball.

The turns up Herrick will be taken to the court at White Plains by Deputy-Sherif Verblands, of Westcleaster County. His counsel, the further will have any only fit them.

The turns up H

been in business at Fulton Market more than twenty-five years. He is said by his friends to have been a Republican in politics until 1884, when he became a Mugwump and voted for Cleveland.

It was stated by one man that Gov. Hill has always been a steadfast friend of Commissioner Blackford, and has hitherto resisted all attempts of partisans to have him

EHRLICH IS CHIEF JUSTICE.

Re-Flected To-Day by His Colleagues on the City Court Bench.

The six Judges of the City Court met in the private chambers of the court in the City Hall at 11 o'clock this morning and designated Judge Simon M. Ehrlich chief Judge.
Judge Ehrlich was re-elected to the City Court Bench last November, his term expiring Dec. 31, 1891. He was Chief Judge, having been designated for the position when Chief Judge McAdam was appointed to the Superior Court Beach.

His designation expired with his term. It's removal will continue him chief Judge of the City Court for six years. The judges who elevated Judge Ehrlich to this position are Metrown, Van Wyck, Mc-Carthy, Newberger and Fitzstinens.

FORAKER MEN CONFIDENT.

The Pledges Which They Say Make water or Baltimore, has arrived at Falmouth Sherman's Defeat Sure.

County, to the support of Forager. The Foraker managers claim this insures cargo having evidently shifted. his nomination.

Fell Into the Harlem.

Fred Zeller, eighteen years old, or 428 East
Nucleonth street, at 4 evices this morning.

Mierly-several at treet, ield into the Harlem.

Eight with a woman at 149 East, and from Schastopol says that within a forther within a forther two divisions of intantity have been within a forther, and that street was hardly out to the mean by a plate street at Young A Smith have been been been been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and that two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two divisions of intantity have been within a forther and two di

The card at Guttenburg shows a slight failing off in the number of entries to-day, but this is naturally to be expected. consists of Richard V. Sherman, of New Hart-ford, appointed Jan. 2, 1870; William II. Bownian, of Rechester, appointed April in There are two handleaps, one at a mile, whom the coroner's jury charged with being was sung as a solo by Mrs. Helen O'Donnell.

POINTERS ON THE RACES. OSSMAN IS SENT TO

The other, at five furious, has in it Early Coroner returned to Yonkers on the 0.24 Patrick's, St. James's, St. Agnes's, St. Francis Bloss in, Autocrat, Mohican, Wrestier and Irain. Xavier's, the Assumption and the Cathedral

Taken, Woodculter and Baylor.

The after, a five turnors, has in it Early The commissioner Blacktord has been the most of commissioner blacktord has been the most of prominent figure in the Commission during the thirteen fract and the existences. The rarks will be sloppy.

The afters for the various extents are as follows:
The afters for the various extents are as
follows:
The afters for the various extents are as
follows:
The afters for the various extents are
follows:
The afters for the various extents and
follows:
The afters for the various extents
The afters for the various extents
The afters fo

Morning Papers Selections. First Race—Vagabond, Irene R. Second Race—Noonday, Little Fred. Third Race—St Paneras, John Hickey, Fourth Race—Drizzle, Woodcutter, Fifth Race—Early Blossom, Medican, Sixth Race—Perlid, Cilmax.

First Race-Lillian, Flambeau, First Race-Lillian, Frambeau, Second Race-Lillian Fred, Noonday, Tidri Race-St Pancras, The Rosa G, colt, Fourth Race-Nina Archer, Woodcutter, Fifth Race-Early Ricssom, Fleurette, Sixth Race-Climax, St John.

First Race—Flambeau, Lillian, second Race—Little Frid, Noonday, Third Race—St. Fateras, John Hickey, Fourth Race—Woodcutter, Brizzle, Fifth Race—Early Brossom, Fleurette, Sixth Race—Perlid, Climax.

First Race-Lillian, Vagabond. Second Race-Lillie Frod Chartrense Third Race-St. Paneras, Rosa G. Colf Fourth Race-Sina Archer, Drizzic Fifth Race-Early Blossom, Sixth Race-Ferild, Climax.

First Race—Lillian, Vagatond.
Second Race—Lillia Fred, Chartreuse.
Third Race—Noble puke, St., Paneras,
Fourth Race—Drizzle, Nina Archer, Fitth Race—Mc Cormick's best (Autocrat or Early Blesson), Wolfcan, Sixth Race—Perlid, Clumax.

Ocean Steamers in Trouble. INT ASSOCIATED PRESS. Loyney, Jan. 2. - The British steamer Iona, from West Hartlepool to Delaware Break-with her main shaft broken. She was brought into port by the British steamer Memphis. thy associated parsa t into port by the British steamer Memphis, Columbia, O., Jan. 2.—There was great excitement in the Foraker camp at 1 octocs. London.

this morning, when extended interviews were given out piedging Representatives L. C. (British), Capt. Reader, New York Doc. 20, for Reeves, of Ashtabula, and Williams, of Noble Ristol, England. Is below and is coming up the harbor. She is heavily listed to port, her

A Plate Was Her Weapon.

Causing the Hastings Dieaster.

YONKERS, Jan. 2.—Coroner Mitchell went to New York on the 8.11 o'clock train this Bowman, of Rochester, appointed April 50, 1884; A. Sylvester Joline, or Tottenville, appointed July 13, 1887; Henry Burden, of the Troy, appointed July 6, 1888, and David Troy, appointed July 6, 1888, and David Archer, Woodcutter and Baylor.

Some good racing.

There are two handicaps, one at a mile, whom the Coroner's jury charged with being an accessary in the responsibility of the Hastings disaster on Christmas Eve. The Coroner returned to Yonkers on the 9.24 Hastings disaster on Christmas Eve. The from the following church choirs: 8t-

Now York.

The was given in custody of Deputy Sherin and Miss Seig, both members of prominent of the service of on there were no signs or messages

FOUND DEAD IN THE STREET.

Night Watchman Mallard Supposed to Have Died of Apoplexy.

Policeman Peter Nathan, of the Leonard treet squad, found the dead body of an old man lying on the sidewalk in front of 466 seenwich street at 3.45 this morning. It was suspected at first that he might have een the victim of foul play, but after the body fuad been taken to the station and an examination made by a surgeon, who had been summened from chambers street Hospital. If was reported that no marks of violence were to be found upon his person. It was the opinion of the surgeon that he had made if another of the well-known circus managers who have become rich and ramous in the last quarter century.

Cooper entered the circus business in Phila-The best was afterwards identified by articles found in the pockets of the clothing as that of John Mallard, fifty-six years old, who has long been well known in the drypoeds district, warp he had been employed by several firms as a night watchman. Mallarit was single and had been living for some line past in a cheap lodging-house at Washington and Canal streets. No money was found upon him, which raises the suspicion that the body may have been roboed as it has on the stewalk better the police found it. Mallarit had no relations, and his body will probably be sent to the Morgue, to-day. was afterwards identified by

GEN. M. C. MEIGS DEAD.

He Passes Away at Washington, a Victim of the Grip.

SET ASSOCIATED PRESS. Wassington, Jan 2 .- Gen. Montgomery C.

Massing of Troops on the Austro-Russian Frontier.

2 O'CLOCK.

BISHOP LOUGHLIN'S FUNERAL

The Body Placed in a Crypt in St. James's Cathedral.

A Solemn Pontificial Mass Celebrated by Archbishop Corrigan.

The last sclemn rites were performed this norning at St. James's Pro-Cathedral, Brooklyn, for the dead Bishop John Loughlin, and the casket containing the body of the first Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Breeklyn was placed in the crypt prepared for its reception beneath the main altar. there to remain until the new Cathedral is finished.

The solemn Pontifical mass was celebrated by Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, and Bishop Maybrick, of the Church of the Redemptorist Fathers, South Fifth avenue, New York, delivered the eulogy.

Vhe other officers of the mass were Assistant priest, Very Rev. Michael May, V. G.; deacons of honor, Revs. Thomas Taaffe and McCarroll; deacon of mass, Rev. J. A. Hartnett, C. M.; sub-deacon, Rev. P. J. McNamara; master of ceremontes, Revs. J. Brosnan, M. Slight Decrease in the Entries at Committed by the Coroner for Mccaffrey and N. Kerby, censer bearers, Revs. J. Mallon and J. York, nearly all of whom have as boys served on the altar of the dead Bishop.

Following was the musical programme given under the direction of Organist Mechan:

The singers of the chorus were selected and Miss Seig, both members of prominent yesterday afternoon, stopped for a moment A strong wind was blowing, and, without in front of a storage building. warning, the whole front of the building audwarning, the whole front of the building sud-denly corecated and fell to the ground. The counte were completely buried.

Miss Selg was instantly killed, her head being crushed to a shapeless mass. Mr. Spohn died white being removed from the debris-The unfortunate couple were to be married in a few weeks.

DEATH OF JAMES E. COOPER.

He Was an Old-Time and Well-Known Circus Manager.

Cooper entered the circus business in Philsdelphia in 1863 with Dan Gardner, Dick Hemmings and John O'Brien. He was atterwards associated, at different times, with Harry Whitby, James A. Bailey, James L. Hutchinson and P. T. Barnum, and had visited every part of the civilized world with their shows. Cooper's fortune is estimated at $1.750.000. Policeman Sherwood Injured. Policeman Charles Sherwood, of the Sixteenth Precinct, while getting on a Twentythird street horse-car at Eleventh avenue just after midnight, fell and sustained a lacerated wound on the right side. He was taken to the New York Hospital. Smallpox in Second Street.

A case of smallpox was to-my reported by Dr. Ignatz Rottenburg, or 280 second street.

Flames in a Brick Dwelling. Fire broke out oh the top floor of the threestory brick dwelling at 141 West Fitteenth

(by associated pages, 1 atrees, occupied by Louisa Peque, at 1.50 a. s. Loydon, Jan. 2.—A despatch to the Stand-to-day. Damage, $7,000.

A CHAPTER OF ENGLISH HISTORY THAT IS INTERESTING, IF NOTHING MORE. HE SAYS IT WILL BE FOUR YEARS BEFORE WE ARE READY TO FIGHT. SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Let's go to McCormica's."

iar out of the ordinary. "'THE EVENING WORLD' DID IT."

"Honest" John Kelly was dead in the sense

No more doth slide Door at side Of Kelly's dive.

to take there and pluck.

men are robbed nightly, and where two where painted fenales practice whiles

the rooms, four chairs to each, but there are blows over. Then things will run on again Offlines respectable women passing stop all right. He knows what he is doing, for he too, not knowing the character of the place, the adviser got his information, Mr. Keily's | toul air and an eruption of profanity is waited friend refused to say. But his conviction that Into the street decent women hide their faces, Mr. Kelly's subsequent career in the dive and, shocked and horrified, burry out of the business would go on with prosperity and neighborhood. Respectable people who have without disturbance, was firmly fixed as been through the experience, and have occa-

the street. Mr. "Jim" McCornick, whose establishment adjoins that of Mr. Kelly to the north, did a land-office trade. His three little assignation rooms were crowded all night, and not take the crowd which, with the overflow rooms were crowded all night, and not take the crowd which, with the overflow rooms were crowded all night, and not AN ALISNIGHT DEN. was vacant for five relutives at a time.

Flashily dressed women, singly and in pairs and others accompanied by men begen to make their appearance shortly after 10

ideas of some of "Honest" John Kelly a nectors, cappers, confidence men and steerers patrons, as to the cause of his studen suspensational around drinking and alterushing the

THE SUNDAY WORLD.

IT OPENS THE NEW YEAR BY BEING Brighter and Newsier Than Ever.

FOR TO-MORROW: ENGLISH MORALS FOR '91.

Aunts-The Cleveland Street Horror-The Berkeley Romance. Portraits.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S SERMONS.

"The Voice of the War Lord on the Waters" -Text of the Young Emperor's Sermon in German and English.

Scandals Which May Be Barely Hinted At-

Lord Russell and His Countess-Drunk and Disorderly Lady Zouche-The Fife Baby's Wicked

SECRETARY TRACY TALKS. He Tells THE WORLD, Through Julian Hawthorne, Just How Long It Would Take to

Put Our Navy in Fighting Trim - Nowhere Near Ready for an Enemy. Illustrated. THE VENGEANCE OF THE SEA. Maxwell Gray's Latest Story, Dealing with

Love on the Sea Coast Among the Humble

Cottagers. Specially Illustrated.

AMUSEMENTS OF NEW YORK WOMEN. How Some of Our Society Leaders Entertain Themselves During These Long Winter

Evenings. Illustrated.

REAL LIFE IN THE WEST. Character Happenings as Boiled Down by Real Western Editors A Novel Feature. Illustrated.

How the Great French Actress, Bernhardt, Entertains Friends with a Supper 🏔 Her Own Cosy Private Car.

STORIES OF WALL STREET.

A SUPPER WITH SARAH.

INTERNATIONAL HUMOR. Best Cartoons from the Caricaturists of All Nations, Showing Their Idea of the Mission of the Funny Artist.

An Expert Tells of the Other Days of Money

Kings, and Gives Interesting Reminiscences of the Millionaires of To-Day. BRO. GARDNER AND THE CRANK.

Dastardly Attempt to Blow Up the President of the Cotton Blossom Club Folled by Quick Wit-M. Quad's Story. The second secon